Piccadilly. 1779.

[Price One Shilling.]

ADVERTISEMENT.

TO this Edition is prefixed a List of the late and present House of Commons, shewing the Changes made in the Members of Parliament by the General Election in 1774. And it is further improved this Year with the Additions of the Date when each City and Borough first sent Representatives to Parliament, the Right of Election in each Place, and the supposed Number of Electors. Where the Right of Election has been ascertained by a Resolution of the House of Commons, the Date of that Resolution is given. Where there is no Date to the Right of Election, there has been no Resolution of the House upon it, and the Custom, which is given, is still adhered to. The supposed Number of Electors follow.

EXPLANATION.

Abingdon first sent Representatives to Parliament in the 4th Year of the Reign of Philip and Mary. The Right of Election is in the Inhabitants not receiving Alms, or any Charity, by a Resolution of the House of Commons of the 13th of January, 1708. The supposed Number of Voters are 600.

Respecting the Lists of Changes in all the great Offices, the Rule laid down and pursued in this little Book, is, in each office first giving the Person or Persons who held that Department at the Accession of the present King, and then the Changes, or Alterations, which have been since made, follow with their Dates.

No Pains have been spared to be as accurate as possible: But Notice of any Errors will, at all Times be thankfully received by the Publisher; together with any Hints for Improvement.

A LIST of the late and present Members of Parliament.

*. *. The names in Roman characters are the gentlemen elected at the General Election in 1768, and the names in Italic characters, are the gentlemen elected afterwards.

*. *. The names in Roman characters are the gentlemen elected at the General Election in 1774, and the names in Italic characters are the gentlemen who were candidates. The figures shew the numbers who voted for each person.

Books printed for J. Almon in Piccadilly.

THE Parliamentary Register; or, History of the Proceedings and Debates of the Lords and Commons, containing an Account of the most interesting Speeches and Motions, accurate Copies of all Letters and Papers, the most material Evidence, Papers, Protests, &c. since the general Election in 1774; with proper Indexes, &c. Ten Volumes, 3l. 7s. 6d.

The Parliamentary Register, being the Proceedings and Debates of the Fifth Session, is now publishing in Numbers, price One Shilling each.

The Remembrancer; or, Impartial Repository of public Events. Published Monthly, price One Shilling each Number. The late interesting Advices from America, suggested the Utility of a Periodical Collection of the best Accounts of every important public Transaction. Many Events have happened during the last Summer which probably will be the Subject of Discussion this Winter. These Accounts being published in the News Papers, are frequently mislaid after the Day of Publication, and when afterwards wanted, are sometimes very difficult to recover: besides, being mixed with the common Occurrences of the Day, and published in a large Folio Size, render the Mode of Preservation awkward disagreeable, and almost impossible. In brief, the Plan of this Work is, to select from all the public Prints, the best Account of every material public Event; to print it in Octavo, and at the End of every Volume, to give a copious Index. This Work began with the War, and has been regularly continued, in monthly Numbers, to the present Time, price One Shilling each.
